MENOPAUSE

Dr Sam Brown

Dr Samantha Brown is a GP and Menopause Specialist providing menopause appointments virtually and in person at The Bronte Clinic, a Women's Health Clinic in Chelsea, which she founded in 2021. She is a member of The British Menopause Society (BMS), The International Menopause Society and holds the Advanced Certificate in Menopause Care.

She is also a member of the Primary Care Women's Health Forum, a Diplomate of the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (DRCOG) and The Faculty of Sexual and Reproductive Healthcare. (DFSRH) and passed her Royal College of General Practice exams with distinction in 2004.

Alongside her current menopause work she is an NHS GP and an NHS appraiser for the London Deanery. Until 2019 she was working as a GP partner in a large practice in London where she was mental health lead for many years. She is passionate about women's health and supporting people who may be struggling with their mental health and feels that this is especially important around the perimenopause when symptoms can be misdiagnosed.
